MULTIPLE COMMERCIAL BURGLARIES      EUGENE ST/CREEK RIDGE RD

12/11//05 – 12/12/05 9:10 PM – 12:25 AM

Officers responded to a reported burglary at 205-G Creek Ridge Road after an employee observed a suspect fleeing through a broken front glass door at 9:10 PM.

As officers checked the building at Creek Ridge Road, communications dispatched another burglary of a business at 3012 S. Eugene Street, where a suspect gained entry by breaking the glass door. A check with the alarm company indicates this burglary occurred at 9:20 PM.

Corporal Gaines then located two more burglaries, one at 137 Blue Bell Road and one at 2913 Pacific Avenue, both with broken glass doors or windows as points of entry. A check of the area did not reveal any additional burglaries.

A private security guard later observed a suspicious subject and subsequently located a fifth burglary at 105 Creek Ridge Road at 12:25 AM. The suspicious subject eluded capture. The initial suspect description was a black male, 5'3"-5'6" tall and wearing a black hooded sweatshirt.

Evidence at each scene suggests petty cash was the object of each burglary, but a computer printer was also taken from 137 Blue Bell Road. Officers recovered this printer behind 3105 S. Eugene Street.

At 6:45 AM a sixth burglary at 171 Blue Bell Road was reported.

District Two Officers responded to these incidents.

The investigation is continuing and person (s) with information should contact Crime Stoppers at 336-373-1000.
